Investment Objectives and Strategies

The fund's objective is to achieve a high level of total return, including dividend income and capital gains, by investing primarily in dividend-yielding common and preferred shares of North American companies.

The portfolio manager invests in attractively priced North American equities, including income trusts, using a process that includes an analysis of the financial statements, company management and valuations, with an emphasis on companies that generate consistent earnings.

Disclaimer

BMO Mutual Funds are offered by BMO Investments Inc., a financial services firm and separate legal entity from Bank of Montreal.

Commissions, trailing commissions, management fees and expenses all may be associated with mutual fund investments. Please read the prospectus of the mutual fund before investing. Except as otherwise noted, the indicated rates of return are the historical annual compounded total returns including changes in unit value and reinvestment of all distributions and do not take into account sales, redemption, distribution or optional charges or income taxes payable by any unitholder that would have reduced returns.

On May 5, 2006, the investment objectives and strategies of BMO North American Dividend Fund were changed to allow the fund to invest primarily in dividend-yielding common and preferred shares of North American companies. The requirement to invest primarily in companies that were expected to benefit from the North American Free Trade Agreement was eliminated. In addition, the fund's name was changed from BMO NAFTA Advantage Fund to BMO North American Dividend Fund. The change to the fund's investment objectives and strategies could have affected the performance of the fund, had it been in effect throughout the performance measurement periods presented.

Mutual funds are not guaranteed or covered by the Canadian Deposit Insurance Corporation, the Régie de l'assurance-dépôts du Québec or by any other government deposit insurer. The value of mutual funds change frequently and past performance may not be repeated.
